Today we welcome Rev. Dr. Barbara Anne Keely. Rev. Dr. Barbara Anne Keely taught at United Theological Seminary of the Twin Cities for 24 years and the last 7 years has served as a transitional pastor serving 4 churches in our Presbytery. She continues to serve the Presbytery as Chair of the Board of Trustees, and is delighted to again lead worship at Spirit of Life today.

Prelude

Welcome (Rev. Dr. Barbara Anne Keely)

Call to Worship (Becky Brandt)

One: As we light the candle, please quietly prepare yourself to be fully aware of the presence of God.

One: Come, let us worship our God.

ALL: There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Parent of all,

One: who is above all and through all and in all.

ALL: We come with humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another in love.

Opening Song: They'll Know We Are Christians By Our Love #300, CCLI #26997

Prayer of Reconciliation: (Odosa Amadasun—Song)

Assurance of Grace: (Rev. Dr. Barbara Anne Keely)

Passing of the Peace May the peace of Christ be with you now, (And also with you)...let us take a moment and share the peace of Christ with one another.

Passing of the Peace Song: One Faith One Hope One Lord by Craig Courtney (Karen Cromer Johnson) CCLI #83387

Prayer of Illumination (Becky Brandt)

Scripture (Becky Brandt) Ephesians 4:1-16

I, therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace: there is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all. But each of us was given grace according to the measure of Christ's gift. Therefore it is said, "When he ascended on high, he made captivity itself a captive; he gave gifts to his people."

(When it says, "He ascended," what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower parts of the earth? He who descended is the same one who ascended far above all the heavens, so that he might fill all things.) He himself granted that some are apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ. We must no longer be children, tossed to and fro and blown about by every wind of doctrine by people's trickery, by their craftiness in deceitful scheming; but speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body's growth in building itself up in love.

Children's Sermon: (Oghomwen Amadasun)

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

All: Gracious God, you have made us one through the indwelling of your Holy Spirit. We have seen your power in sending light to conquer darkness, water to give us life, and the bread of heaven to nourish us in love. Send us out now, with the good news of salvation and a message of joy for all the world, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GriefShare Program Starting Thursday, September 8, 6:30 pm at Spirit of Life Church, Apple Valley. This program features biblical, Christ-centered teaching that focuses on grief topics associated with the death of a loved one. The DVD seminar features nationally respected grief experts and real-life stories of people, followed by a small group discussion about what was viewed. Past participants have related how helpful the information and follow-up discussions were to them. Many grieving people find they are only beginning the work of healing when friends or family have returned to their daily life routines. Too often people, including Christians, tend to bury their grief instead of allowing it to do the God-given work for which it is intended. Don't allow fear of what others may think to keep you from what could help you. Confidentiality is very much a part of this program. Please contact Bob Shepard or Jacqui Hicks for more information or to sign up.

Church office furniture: Anyone interested in any of the old office furniture (sitting in the hallway), please contact Mary Brause or Ryan Currens. Free will offering is requested from congregation recipients, after which items will be listed for sale on marketplace.

Check out the FREE table at the back of the sanctuary. We've been doing a little cleaning and purging so if you see something on the table that you can use, please take it home and enjoy! *Department heads please note there are binders specific to your department on the same table.

We now have a drop box on the wall in the office for any church money that needs to get to our treasurer. We also have envelopes above the drop box with labels you can fill out when leaving money so that Meg or Barb know what the money is for and who it is from. If you are depositing cash please count the amount of cash and put that information on the envelope too.

Watch for something new coming from the Justice Works Committee! Look for a bookshelf in the back of the sanctuary, filled with books on topics related to immigration and racial justice. These books are available for you to borrow, with a sign-out sheet to list your name, contact information, and the book you are borrowing. The purpose of this book-borrowing opportunity is to open up a chance for discussion about sensitive topics. As one of our committee members has stated, "we don't have these conversations". All of these books have been read by one or more of the members of our committee, and their names are listed on a card inside each book; use this card as your bookmark, and if you would like to have a conversation about what you are reading, you are encouraged to reach out to one or more of the people who have already read the book. Contact information is in the church directory. If you would like to be included in future conversations, add your name to the card to potentially be contacted by a future reader; return the book to the borrowing shelf with the card inside. The books range from "easy" reading, including children's books, all the way to "very challenging", either because of graphic descriptions of violence, difficult concepts, or academic writing style. Books include fiction as well as non-fiction, and cover a wide range of topics. Take a look at the offerings on the borrowing bookshelf! If you have any questions, either Joanne Boyd or Denise Lewis can answer them.

If you have a prayer request you wish to share with our Spirit Care Prayer Team, please email our deacon, Chris Sachs at ccsachs123@gmail.com. Word it as you wish it to be submitted, and we will post it for our prayer team.

"Our Little Free Pantry continues to be of great service to our hungry neighbors. An anonymous note of appreciation was left this week. We would appreciate donations to keep our cupboard full. Preferred items at this time include jars of spaghetti sauce, any pasta, bags of plain white rice, any canned vegetables or fruits, peanut butter, jelly, canned tuna, Spam, dry milk. These items and any other non-perishables can be placed in the driveway pantry or left in the cabinet inside the front door to the church. Members of the Community Service committee will refill items when needed and thank you very much for your support and donations. We can make a difference in preventing hunger in our neighborhood!"
